Significant Business Disruption (SBD) Disclosure

A Significant Business Disruption (SBD) is a situation which may cause stress to our firm and our customers as we provide our customers with financial services in the areas of transaction order receipts and order entry.

SBDs may take the following forms as a result of weather events, fire, or terrorists actions. They may affect our firm and our customers in varying degrees: a firm-only business disruption, a disruption to a single building, a disruption to a business district, a city-wide business disruption, and a regional disruption

To accomplish the goal of continuing to provide service to our customers in the event that we experience a SBD, we have developed and installed a Business Continuity Plan (BCP) in conjunction with Charles Schwab, Inc. We feel our BCP will provide seamless continuous service to our customers even if we are required to relocate our office to an alternate location. The two most serious challenges we will overcome is a regional loss of power and telecommunications.

In a SBD situation:

Your primary contact method will remain your registered representative's main telephone number as noted on your statement. In an SBD these phone lines will be forwarded to alternate cellular phone lines when possible.

During a SBD when the phone lines cannot be forwarded, a voice mail message feature has been added to our primary phone line. In an SBD you will receive an updated message on the current situation and the ability to leave a message or be given an alternative phone number. The Voice Mail Feature will continue to operate even with loss of power and telecommunication services.

Your secondary contact method, if your are unable to contact your representative directly, is our primary Main Office telephone number 817-335-5739. If this number is unavailable, you may contact us using our Main Office cellular telephone service number 817-727-0741. This service also has a message feature to update you on current events and also the ability for our customers to leave a message. Also can contact Charles Schwab at 877-738-6814.

While it is highly recommended that each customer maintain all statements from the companies, both our firm and associated firms with which we conduct business have established similar BCPs that contain alternate business locations and back-ups of all record. Each customer will receive pertinent information should we amend our Business Continuity Plan in any way that directly impacts our clients.

Privacy Policy

At Omega Wealth Partners, Inc., we are committed to protecting your privacy and the confidentiality of your personal and financial information. The measures we take to keep your personal information private and secure are outlined below.
